BROADWAY MOTHERS

THEY MEET WITH TEACHERS AND HOLD IMPORTANT SESSION

The Broadway P.-T. A. met at the Broadway School Tuesday afternoon April 15, 1919.

After the Flag Salute was given, the little folks of the Kindergarten sang a series of pretty songs, accompanied on the piano by their teacher, Mrs. Salisbury.

Interesting business to come before the members included a report on the revision of the P.-T. A. constitution. It was decided to make the constitution of this P.-T. A. conform with that of the Glendale Federation. The report on the revision of the constitution was given by the chairman, Mrs. Jepson.

Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Ewings and Mrs. Houghton were appointed on a committee to present the needs of the Broadway School to the Board of Trustees.

Mrs. Jepson, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Aicholtz, Mrs. Ewins and Mrs. Burns were appointed as delegates to the District Convention this Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Fanset, Mrs. McQuarrie, Mrs. Ewins, Mrs. Salisbury and Mrs. Mandis were appointed on the Nominating Committee.

The business concluded, Miss Titcomb, one of the pioneers in Kindergarten work, gave a delightful talk on "The Value of the Kindergarten of Today."

NOTED WOMAN LECTURER

Miss Marian L. Woodberry, secretary of the National Home Missionary Society of the Congregational Churches, will speak at the Glendale Congregational Church tonight. Miss Woodberry is a most remarkable speaker. In fact, there are none better. She is a keen observer, gathers pertinent illustrations from her wide field, and speaks with a freshness and fullness of knowledge and experience that stirs the hearts of all who hear her. She is a dynamo of enthusiasm. She not only has a great message but she possesses the happy faculty of putting it across. Glendale is honored in having this distinguished speaker.

The local missionary society will honor Miss Woodberry with a dinner served at 6:30. Though much was expected from the speaker last night, more was received. Many felt it was one of the greatest sermons which they had heard. Every sentence was an oratorical gem and was saturated with the Spirit of God. It was one of those addresses that carries man into the center of the heart and thought of the great loving Father. The attendance was good. This is proving one of the most helpful series of meetings which this church has held.

DEATH OF MRS. OLIVE IRENE MILLBURN

Mrs. Olive Irene Millburn died Wednesday afternoon, April 15, 1919, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stevens, at 216 Arden avenue, at the age of 32. She was born in Ontario, Canada, and the remains, which are in charge of the Scovern Company, will be taken back to Toronto for interment by the sorrowing husband. No funeral services will be held here.

TRUSTEES CONVENE AT 8:30 O'CLOCK

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale will convene at 8:30 o'clock this evening instead of at eight o'clock as has been the custom.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES L. CHANDLER ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF DR. RUTH M. WOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler of 611 North Central avenue entertained with a dinner party Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. Ruth M. Wood of Los Angeles. The occasion was the 81st birthday of Dr. Wood, who is Mr. Chandler's great-aunt, and the guests included four generations of the family. In addition to the guest of honor and the immediate family, Mrs. Eleanor Martin of Perris and Mrs. J. R. Penn and daughters of Oil City, Pennsylvania, as well as Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Fischer of Los Angeles, were numbered among the seventeen diners.

The usual features of birthday celebrations were present, including a large birthday cake with the requisite eighty-one tiny blazing candles bringing the dinner to a literally brilliant climax.

DIED IN FRANCE

YOUNG SOLDIER LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE IN COUNTRY'S SERVICE

Dying in magnificent charge on a strongly intrenched and stubborn foe, while shot and shell decimate serried ranks sheds a halo of glory around the hero's form, but dying in the discharge of duty long after war has ceased is equally to be praised.

So died Peter F. Moritz, nephew of Mrs. F. E. Greene, of 310 Dryden St., with whom he had made his home for two years before he entered his country's service more than 18 months ago. His mother lives in Warren, Ohio. He was a member of Supply Co. No. 304 and was stationed at Brest, France. He had been enjoying a hard-earned furlough by taking a trip through England, Scotland and Ireland and two days after his return to work was attacked with spinal meningitis, which proved fatal in a very short time. His death occurred on March 30th. Deceased had many friends among the young people of North Glendale, who will sincerely mourn his untimely death.

HAPPY YOUNG PEOPLE

JOYOUS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION AT BEAUTIFUL PECKHAM HOME

Miss Gladys Peckham attained the dignity of sweet sixteen yesterday and to properly celebrate the momentous event a number of her young friends gave her a very joyful surprise. They gathered at the C. L. Peckham home, 615 North Central Ave., and gave Miss Gladys to understand they had come for the evening and meant to enjoy themselves. Mrs. Peckham, who was in the secret, made everyone feel at home and music, games and dancing whiled away the hours most happily. Those present were Misses Dorothy Cannont, Elizabeth Lyons, Virginia Huntley, Mildred Stanford, Lorene Allewelt, Catherine Guthrie, Edythe Atkinson, Dorothy Carmack, Cornelia Elliott and Mildred Meeker; Messrs. Paul Haig, Wm. Strong, Kenneth Whaley, Earl Marquis, Hulbert and Gerald Toll, Warren Meeker, Earl Germain, Robert Carmack, Paul and Ralph Hutchinson.

DONALD PACKER HOME

Corporal Donald Packer arrived home Tuesday night from the Presidio on a month's leave. He is very happy to be here again. Mrs. Packer, Doris and Donald, accompanied by Mrs. Packer's sister, Mrs. M. H. Rodgers, and house guest, Mrs. Betke, of Chicago, go to Balboa today for a week-end outing.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION

FURNISHES FINE PROGRAM AT MEETING OF DOWNEY WOMAN'S CLUB WEDNESDAY

The Shakespeare Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club motored to Downey Wednesday where they spent the afternoon as guests of the Woman's Club of that city, presenting several scenes from Shakespeare's plays as interpreted by them earlier in the season at the home of the curator of the section, Mrs. C. H. Temple.

The hearty welcome extended by the charming president of the hostess club, Mrs. J. K. Tweedy, and the secretary, Mrs. T. R. Bagley, was the forerunner of a pleasurable afternoon to come.

Those taking part in the performance were: Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee, Mrs. C. E. Parker, who also in the course of the afternoon rendered delightfully two vocal solos which charmed the audience—Mrs. I. F. Levitt, Mrs. C. E. Norton, Mrs. C. H. Temple, Mrs. William Halstead, Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Ralston. Other members of the section who accompanied them were: Mrs. Rueter, Mrs. Kling, Mrs. Carrie Waite, Mrs. Edna Sawyer, Mrs. E. W. Kingsley, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, and two guests, Mrs. Wade of Canada (who gave several fine piano selections), and Miss Eva Daniels.

Mrs. McClure, the class instructor, gave short explanations of the scenes before presentation, the whole forming a splendid program which was much appreciated by the two hundred ladies present.

At the close Mrs. Tweedy announced a social hour to follow during which a dainty luncheon was served and enjoyed.

The section will hold its next regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Montgomery, 415 South Central Ave.

EXAMINATION OF JURORS

ATTORNEYS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS IN QUESTIONING PROSPECTIVE JURORS IN WOODMAN TRIAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, April 17.—A tense court room sat through the first two hours of the trial of Mayor Frederic T. Woodman, indicted for alleged bribery, today without being disturbed by anything nearing the bitter clashes which the trial was expected to produce from its outset.

When adjournment was taken there were no prominent persons in the box, but attorneys seemed pleased with the progress made.

Martin Olsen of Sierra Madre, the first prospective juror questioned, said that he did not know Mayor Woodman was under indictment until he came to court this morning.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company was mentioned when J. E. Baker of Los Angeles was questioned. He was asked if he owned stock in the company, and replied that he did not. Mayor Woodman a few weeks ago charged that the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company was persecuting him.

Two women are among the twelve persons in the box, and probably will be reached in the questioning late today or tomorrow.

LABOR COMES BACK TO FARM

THE SUPPLY FOR THE U. S. IS NOW 83 PER CENT OF DEMAND AND IN CALIFORNIA 91 PER CENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 17.—Department of Agriculture reports show that farm workers who went to munitions factories during the war are coming back to the farms. The nation's farm labor supply is now 83 per cent of the demand. At the same time last year it was 72 per cent. The Department of Agriculture officials say the outlook is exceedingly bright.

The far west has a farm labor supply of 88 per cent of the demand. California's supply is 91 per cent.

NATIONAL RIOTS IN KOREA

LARGE NUMBERS OF JAPANESE TROOPS SENT TO FUSAN FROM TOKIO FOR GUARD DUTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Seoul, Korea, April 17.—It was announced today that one thousand Koreans have been examined in connection with the national riots and that 799 are still held in prisons. The government said the prisons are full, but that more room can be found if it is needed.

Over 1,600 Japanese troops and hundreds of gens d'rmes have arrived at Fusan from Tokio for guard duty. Two complete Japanese divisions are now en route for Korea from Tokio.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 17.—The Iowa House today voted against impeaching Governor Harding for pardoning Ernest Rathbun, a social criminal.

THREE WEEKS FOR DEBATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 17.—The best obtainable information today is that the Germans will be given until May 15th to sign the peace treaty. It is understood that date has been set as a tentative time limit. If the present arrangement is carried out it will allow Germany three weeks to debate the treaty.

The Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian delegates will be called to Paris soon after the Germans. Many believe that treaties with Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria will be actually signed as soon as Germany's as it is understood those treaties will be much less complicated.

THE BEST OF ALL

W. B. KIRK URGES GLENDALE TO DO HER PART IN VICTORY LOAN

The fifth and last "Victory" Loan is upon us. Next week and the following is the time set aside by the government for completing it. The workers in previous loan campaigns are expected to line up and do their full duty, rendering the same loyal and efficient service as in the previous drives. I believe they will do this at the last minute, although there seems to be a disposition on the part of some here in Glendale to rest on their oars and "let George do it." It is a shame that anybody should be inclined to slack at the wind-up after doing such magnificent work in the previous loans.

Are we disappointed that the war was won so quickly after the U. S. got into it? No! Let's be glad that the lives of our boys are spared and that the devastation and destruction have laregly ceased. Let us not criticise and note the mistakes in administration. As Mr. Coulston says and he has just returned from France, "Of course, mistakes were made—had to be—in doing what the government did in such a short space of time, the wonder is that more and greater ones were not made." Preparations for at least another year of war had to be made, and now that the enemy has collapsed so far ahead of the expected time, we muct pay for our victory. Obligations have been incurred. Shall we meet them with joy in our hearts and at the same time make the best investment on the face of the earth? Wouldn't we rather do this than be compelled to pay them through direct taxation? We know they must and will be met. Let's do it in the best and easiest way.

It is a psychological fact that it is easier to pay a bill for merchandise when the stuff itself is before our eyes, than after it has been consumed or used. Is the obligation to pay the grocer for value received, however, any the less binding because we have eaten up the goods?

Let us wake up to this obligation and while discharging it be gaining in that thrift idea which has been advanced in such a marked degree by the exigency of war-savings.

After all our supposed sacrifices for the winning of the war, I doubt not that the habits of thrift which many of us have acquired for the first time through necessity, will outweigh, in the end, all the losses which the war has caused. Even those who have sacrificed any of their previous issues, either through real necessity or speculative propensity, have paid a small price for their share of the war's cost, while the family which holds them has made an investment and will receive an income from their bonds which will work out to be superior to most which they have made. And the coming issue will be the best of them all. The rate of interest will be the highest, and the time of maturity so short that bankers think they will go above par in 30 days.

Let's get busy and sell our quota the first two days.

W. B. KIRK,
Publicity Chairman.

KNIGHT OF THE STICK

OLD-TIME ILLINOIS PRINTER NOW RESIDENT OF GLENDALE

M. H. Kenagie recently bought the property at 547 Oak St. and moved in. He gravitated at once to the Evening News office to order the paper, for he is an old-time printer, handling the stick on the old Kankakee, Ill., Gazette in the '50's. He remembers well a visit of Horace Greeley to the Gazette office. He shook hands with all in the office and composing room and genially remarked: "We country printers have much more room in our offices than the city fellows." Mr. Kenagie shook hands with Lincoln and Douglass many times and listened to many of their debates. His career as a typo was ended when the Civil War opened. He enlisted and served all through the fighting and never went back to the case. He is now in his 80th year, but still hale and hearty.

OVER THE TOP AGAIN

High School students are feeling very well satisfied with their work in connection with the drive for "Devastated France" and Principal Geo. U. Moyse, who was the chairman for this city, is proud of their response to his appeal. Glendale's quota was $528.40. The drive was closed Thursday with a total return of $725.25 or more than a third in excess of the required amount.

THIS IS THE NIGHT

LOCAL ORGANIZATION OF SOLDIERS AND SAILORS TO BE COMPLETED

A meeting of greatest importance to every man who wore the uniform of our country in any capacity during the late war will be held in Elks' Social Hall this evening at eight o'clock. Committees on constitution and by-laws, on boosting for membership and on securing employment for discharged soldiers and sailors are to report. Members of these committees have been working faithfully at their tasks and the reports will be worth hearing. Every man eligible to membership in this order should not fail to be present. It means much for him in comradeship and it may mean more to him in service later on. Some of our representative citizens are members already and working hard to make it a success. Every man who is present tonight and signs the muster roll will be a charter member, and this will be something to look backward to with pride as long as life shall last. So many problems are facing the discharged soldier and sailor and so many questions affecting them are coming up before our lawmaking bodies that a strong and compact organization, nation-wide, is a vital necessity. The local branch will undoubtedly soon affiliate with some national or international organization in order to share in all the benefits to be derived therefrom. Meanwhile every service man should make it a point to see that every other service man is at the meeting tonight.

THE CONGO REGION

INTERMEDIATE PUPILS HAVE INTERESTING GEOGRAPHY LESSON FROM MR. BARCLAY

At a special assembly held at the Intermediate School Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Barclay, who is in the employ of a mining company in the Congo region of Central Africa, was a speaker. Mr. Barclay who has been enjoyng a leave of absence in Southern California is leaving next month for Africa. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Barclay who has been principal of the Magnolia Avenue School and who recently resigned her position there. He has a large collection of curios and illustrated his talk with some very interesting specimens including grass mats woven and embroidered by the natives, knives which they manufacture, leopard skins, and the teeth of lions and leopards. The pupils, especially the boys, were intensely interested in the intimate descriptions he was able to give them of lands about which they had studied in their geography lessons which suddenly became very real when seen through his eyes. He told them of the native peoples, their ignorance and superstitions which in a way are a protection to the white men among them whom they revere as possessed of special powers. They mature earlier than the civilized races and are developed at 12 years, but their lives are correspondingly shortened and they are old at 35 and 40 years. He also told of setting up the stars and stripes in more than one hundred native villages.

MASONS CONFER THIRD DEGREE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., conferred the Third Degree Tuesday evening on Joseph R. Bentley and James M. Fife. Several past masters were present and assisted in the ceremony.

The evening closed with a program in the banquet room followed by a buffet luncheon. Any Mason getting information concerning the affair in the banquet hall please report details of same at the next stated meeting. Some say it was Turkey—Turkey?

INTERMEDIATES WIN

BALL GAME WITH "SCRUBS" OF UNION HIGH ENDS IN SCORE OF 15 TO 10

There was an exciting ball game after school Wednesday afternoon between a picked team of Intermediates and the scrubs or first-year boys of Union High. Nine full innings were played and the outlook was not very bright for Intermediate, which was behind until the last inning when it redeemed its reputation gloriously by making six home runs which ended the game with a score of 15 to 10 in favor of the Intermediates. As the boys who win in such contests with outside schools receive letters of honor from the athletic association, they are a proud bunch. Several more games will be played and then all the letters will be awarded at a special assembly which is held for the purpose of conferring such distinctions.

WAR PLANNED FAR AHEAD BY GERMANY

That the entire campaign against France was carefully planned, months, perhaps years in advance, by Germany, is becoming more apparent each day, and it is also evident that no protest or defense on the part of Belgium was anticipated. When war was declared Germany at once demanded passage across Belgium, and on the latter's refusal to violate her treaty obligations and permit this, proceeded by brute force to overpower and ravish this fair land. Every subsequent advance of troops was made across Belgium, leaving Germany's Rhine cities far away from even the sound of war. The armies of occupation found Coblenz, Cologne, Mannheim and other Rhine cities peaceful and prosperous, with no scarcity of food, no appearance that marching armies had ever approached, children swarming the streets and all the inhabitants apparently well nourished. Letters from soldiers stationed in these cities tell of life flowing along peaceful as a summer lake, picture shows and theaters well patronized, eating places and stores well stocked, and prices very moderate. It was evidently intended that this entire section was to be kept thus free and prosperous that it might be drawn upon after the victory Germany confidently expected, to replenish impoverished Berlin and other centers of warlike activities. Berlin's condition is in decided contrast. As noted in soldier letters and recent press statements, only one meal a day is served, and many thousands are subsisting on charity. So marked a contrast in different sections of the same nation is very significant and points to a deliberate plan, long and carefully considered.

PASSING OF THE "BOOZE" FIGHTER

With the passing of John Barleycorn, the 'booze fighter" begins to pass. He was often more sinned against than sinning, and his weakness gave him a humility that made him sometimes more likable than the man who tried to reform him. It was probably the only virtue that Barleycorn had that he made men humble and brought them to their knees before God. If hypocrisy, like the sin of drinking, should cause a staggering of the legs, or some other outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual disgrace, the Pharisee would pass with the "booze fighter."

We offer no brief for the saloon any more than we would for a highwayman, the gambler or the "man before breakfast" habit, but in passing we beg to call attention to a certain picturesqueness that it possessed. While the Pot Roast Cafe will be undoubtedly better for the welfare of man than the U and I Bar, the latter did have a more picturesque and convivial sound. "U and I"—ah, me!— "U and I" and a "loaf of bread and thou beside me." By and by the Idle-while Tea House will replace the "Bucketo-Blood Bar, but it will never produce the wicked thrill that the latter gave to us.

The "thrill" and the "life" of the saloon were not life in its real sense, though, and this is why the west went dry. A serious, forward gazing people, they are ready to build for permanency, for a generation of home lovers who will succeed the prospectors, for an era of earned incomes to succeed the days of easy come, easy go prosperity; and the saloon that went out when Nevada and Wyoming went dry was the last door to be closed upon the old, transient, reckless west.—Kate Mullen in New Republic.

DENIES FRICTION AND BOLSHEVIK LEANINGS

Premier Lloyd George's address to the English Parliament yesterday cleared away many illusions as to what has been done at the peace conference contrary to world sentiment. This address went to show how much better it would have been if the proceedings of the conference had not been veiled in impenetrable secrecy. Lloyd George declared positively that there has never been the slightest friction between him and President Wilson, as has been declared frequently of late and "played up" by sensational newspapers; that there has never been any hint of an intention to recognize Lenine and his bloody government in Russia. He paid high tributes to President Wilson and to bleeding France emerging so grandly and patiently from her thrall of bondage and suffering. He declared the League of Nations would secure the world from future wars and misunderstandings.

COAST AERIAL MAIL SOON

Mail service by dirigible from New York to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland (or Seattle), with the cross-continent flight made in thirty-six hours, is in prospect of realization by next fall. Aeronautic developments are passing beyond the nebulous state of accomplishment. Within a few weeks—possibly within a few days—a successful flight across the Atlantic doubtless will be made. From that initial achievement may evolve quickly an overseas mail service.

Once a dirigible mail-carrying project across this continent is proved to be feasible—and there is every indication that it will be proven so—its permanency will be assured. Then will ensue efforts to perfect the service and to shorten the time of flight. It is even now intimated that a dirigible can make the trip from ocean to ocean in twenty-four hours. There is every logical reason to believe that, within the next few years, mail service will be revolutionized by aircraft—that mail will be carried with phenomenal swiftness.—Long Beach Press.

BEING UNFAIR TO ANIMALS

A cruel person is one who exults in the pain, mental or bodily, suffered by another. Cruelty has its basis in anger (and thus is related to the combative instinct), though there is a cold-blooded form of cruelty which may be enjoyed without any obtrusive feeling of anger.

Cruelty, implying as it does self-consciousness—the ability to realize the feelings of others—is essentiallya human attribute. Children who impale frogs and eviscerate flies cannot be said to be cruel, for they know not what they do. Nor are the lower animals cruel, seeing that they are wholly unconscious of the sufferings of others. Thus the charge of cruelty against the carnivora is unjust. These animals generally destroyed their victims outright, and in the rare cases (e. g., cat and mouse) where they prolong the suffering, they have no knowledge of the pain they are causing. When, therefore, we stigmatize the conduct of the cruel man as "brutal" we wrong the brutes.

The animal which attacks another, and in so doing causes pain, merely responds to a blind, unthinking instinct; but man, proud man, who looks before and after, is able to realize and take pleasure in the pain he deliberately, and by subtle means, maybe, sets out to cause. It is clearly absurd to speak of his conduct as "brutal." Rather should we call it devilish, the devil usually being credited with a goodly share of intelligence. We must cease to libel the brutes by designating the basest acts of a man as brutal. As a matter of fact, they cannot be charged with non-moral conduct, seeing that they are devoid of self-consciousness.—Exchange.

ENEMY FURNISHING AMMUNITION FOR OWN UNDOING

Dispatches to morning papers convey information of disgraceful scenes in the General Assembly yesterday. The Carter-White bill, which the two faithful, upright members sponsoring it had introduced as a retrenchment measure, prepared by the State Taxpayers' Association after two years' careful study and exhaustive investigation of state needs, was the target for opposition on the part of all who favor retention of the many expensive commissions that have boosted the expense of government in California to figures far in excess of those of any other State in the Union. It seems there was a concerted plan, prepared in advance, to defeat the bill. It is charged that several cases of whisky and beer were stored in a room adjacent to the Assembly chamber, and they were opened and distributed by the San Francisco delegation. Under the stimulus of booze, disgraceful scenes were enacted. The Speaker was defied and proponents of the bill were insulted. Forty-seven votes were cast against the billl, defeating it, and booze was directly responsible for a goodly number of them. This demonstration of liquor influence on political action is surely a severe arraignment of its advocates.

Fred Kenyon and family, who lived at 346 Vine St. for over a year past, recently moved back to the old home in South Dakota.

T. J. Morgan and family are back in the old home at 522 West Harvard, after an absence of several months in Seattle, Wash.

Dr. R. H. and Mrs. Boyer, accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Dow and Mrs. C. F. Parker, are motoring to Santa Barbara today to spend a week.

G. W. Calkins of Valley View Road is building in Los Angeles a handsome Colonial house of seven rooms and three similar houses in Hollywood.

Misses Hallie and Eva Kerr of South Pasadena were guests of Miss Ida Myers Wednesday and Thursday at her home, 1607 South San Fernando Road.

Miss Dorothy Poppy of 319 East Chestnut and Miss Bertha Hanson go to Riverside Saturday morning and will spend Easter Sunday there at the Mission Inn.

Young people of the Tropico Presbyterian Church picnicked Tuesday evening at Griffith Park near the Los Feliz Road. There were about twenty-two in the party.

Miss Robinson, of the Colorado School, goes to Santa Ana to spend her Easter vacation and Miss Sparks, her fellow teacher, will have an outing at Fern Lodge in the Santa Ana Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elkins who recently purchased the Watt property at 1320 Valley View Road are remodeling the house and making other changes which will greatly improve the property.

Members of the Ladies' Aid of the Tropico Presbyterian Church are enjoying a social afternoon today (Thursday), at the home of Mrs. H. W. Myers on Central avenue. Mrs. Samuel Ayres will be an assisting hostess.

Mrs. Frank West, whose husband passed away last week and who is the guest of her son, J. W. West, of Valley View Road, has been taken to Elsinore for rest and recuperation before leaving for her home in Toronto, Canada.

Clifford East, with his daughter Katherine is here from Anderson, Ind., as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. East, of Jackson street. He has not seen them for eight years and the family is enjoying the reunion. He is taking auto trips and trying to see as much of the country as possible while here.

G. H. Barager has returned from Long Beach, where he had been living for several months and is now located at 810 E. Harvard. Mr. Barager says he likes Long Beach for its aggressiveness and enthusiasm, but Glendale is nearest his heart as a place to live in.

Daniel Edward Griffin arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Griffin, 205 West Acacia avenue, Tuesday, April 15, 1919. He weighs 10¾ pounds and promises when he gets a little older to hold his own with his sturdy brothers, Jack and Jim. He will probably be known as the Dan of the trio.

Mrs. Harold Salisbury of 506 East Harvard street is a very happy woman. This morning she received a telegram from her husband who is with the 316th Field Battalion Signal Corps of the 91st Division which landed in New York Wednesday, announcing his safe arrival and that he is temporarily at Camp Mills, and will write at once. She is hoping he will be sent to Camp Kearny for discharge.

L. T. Rowley has information that his son Robert who has been in the U. S. Ambulance Service in Italy, is now en route for home. The accumulation of ambulances, auto trucks, etc., belonging to the U. S. in connection with that service have been sold to the Italian government for a fraction of their value, Robert writes, instead of returning them to the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Calkins and daughters, Pearl, Odna and Reba, and their son, Ray, who have been spending about seven months in Glendale, as guests of G. W. Calkins, of 1321 Valley View Road, left for their home in Swaledale, Iowa, Monday morning. They are very much delighted with Glendale and hope to so arrange their affairs that they can return next winter to make their permanent home here.

Friends of Dr. William C. Mabry will be sorry to learn he has been ill, probably a return of influenza of which he had quite a severe case before he left Camp Lewis. He was transferred, it will be remembered, to Fort Douglas, near Salt Lake City, where he had expected his wife and family to join him, but as there seemed some prospect that he would be released, Mrs. Mabry decided not to go and has been looking for his return from day to day.

FOR ALL THE PEOPLE ALL THE TIME

Editor Glendale Evening News:—
Dear Sir:—

As I am a mother of one of the soldier boys that is to be honored with a Civic Center Memorial Park, I feel it a duty to call the attention of the taxpayers of Glendale to the imposition that is proposed to put upon them.

I cannot say as some of the speakers at last night's meeting that I have been ten, twelve or fourteen years here, but I am a booster for Glendale and one of the first things I missed when we moved here two years ago was a public park. We have a large family, most of them boys. I watched with interest the plan of this public park and playgrounds. I attended the meeting last night hoping everyone would speak in favor of this park. Great was my disappointment to find out the proposed site had on it a Sectarian building. There cannot be an amusement grounds so near a Sectarian building as the noise would disturb the services, consequently our amusements grounds would be closed on Sunday. The only time the working boy and girl could use them would be evenings and Sundays; we know where our boys and girls are week-days, it is Sundays and evenings we want a wholesome recreation for them.

Two hundred thousand dollars seems very little now when we speak of billions so glibly, but the parents of large families will think two hundred thousand dollars a mountain on their backs when they are taking their families to the beach or a Los Angeles park by a trolley or automobile if they are fortunate enough to have one, and our own park closed on account of the services in the Sectarian building.

I have before me a letter from France from my soldier son. I will put a line out of his letter on this paper: "Mother mine, as much as I would love to see you and home, I am willing to stay here as long as my country needs me, and if at any future time Uncle Sam needs me I am ready to go." Think you that noble boy or his kind want an honor park for him that is not for all the people at all times, not for a favored few?

MRS. MAURICE FEARY.
1024 San Fernando Road.

OLD RESIDENTS MOVING AWAY

On Monday Roger Rees of 126 S. Kenwood was offered a fine position in a department store at Elsinore. As he had been urged by a physician recently to have Mrs. Rees go to Elsinore Hot Springs for treatment for neuritis, this offer seemed to be a direct leading of Providence, so he at once accepted the offer. He has already taken up the work and will send for his family as soon as he can find a house to move into. Mr. and Mrs. Rees came here more than 12 years ago as a young married couple, their four children were born here and they have formed many ties of friendship which they regret to sever. They have been strong pillars in the Christian Church here, both of them teaching in the Sunday School also and they will be sorely missed there also. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. Ida M. Mayer, aged 48, died suddenly in Los Angeles, Tuesday, April 15, 1918, of valvular heart trouble. She had arrived the day before from Montana with her husband, who is a cattleman, and the journey was undertaken in the hope of improving her health, though neither husband nor wife had any idea her condition was so critical. They were old friends of J. W. Birney, who is connected with the Scovern Undertaking Company in this city and who prepared the remains for shipment to Roundup, Montana, where interment will take place.

It seems some women never speak their minds only because there isn't time enough.

QUESTION OF THE AGES

A POWERFUL SERMON ON A SUBJECT OF MIGHTY INTEREST

"A daughter for a fancied grievance turns from her home the mother who bore her, who nourished her through infancy and girlhood. The mother goes to her only son. He hears her coming, guesses her errand, shuts and locks his door, and refuses to respond to her repeated knocks. He can say truly he did not turn her away from his home, for he did not even see her, but is he not guilty of a despicable crime against his mother? The Savior knocks at the door of your heart, you do not send Him away, you do not answer His gentle loving appeal. You simply ignore Him. Are you guiltless? Remember He said: 'He that is ashamed of Me, of him I will be ashamed before My Father in heaven.' The great question of the ages comes home to every man, to every woman, the question Pilate asked of the vengeful, persecuting Jews, 'What will you do with Jesus, called the Christ?' You'll have to answer this question, every one of you, whether willing or not. It is a question no one can evade. It comes home to every defiant sinner and to every unfaithful church member as well." This was the burden of Pastor Cole's powerful, heart-searching sermon at the Central Christian Church last night. It was preceded by a beautiful song service and the showing of stereopticon slides illustrating the betrayal and trial of Jesus, Pastor Cole accompanying each picture with the scripture reading which it illustrated. Tonight the subject will be "Apostasy and Backsliding," two of the commonest sins against the church, probably commoner here in California, with all its allurements, than anywhere else. Attendance and interest are increasing. People are hungry for the plain gospel preached in plain words that all can understand.

MY LIFE'S LAST ACT

(By Francis Lee Chauvan)

When the Manager divine
Brings the curtain slowly down
On my life's last act, 'twill be
For no actor of renown.

I've played a small role in life,
With no finish of the art
To grace my spirit's record
Of ev'ry act of my part.

Back of life's scenes I have caught
The glimpse of a light, soon lost
To my mind, in vision dimmed,
In the whirl of error tossed.

If I could my play react,
The child to the man in age,
Duty would be the star theme
Of my speech upon life's stage.

My duty in peace or strife
I would act,—the debt I owe
To God, who would for my worth,
A star part on me bestow.

NOTICE

The Glendale Grammar School Board through its representatives, the president of the Board and Mr. R. D. White, supervisor of the grammar schools, are conducting a hearing on the charges against Miss Maybelle Douglas, as made public by Rev. J. F. O'Neill. As the authorities are desirous of reaching a fair and impartial decision in the matter, as the investigation requires time and the schools will be closed the remainder of this week, the findings probably will not be made public until next week.

PICTORIAL REVIEWS

Associated with the thought of the new dress or blouse is always the thought of the style in which it shall be made and this naturally leads the way to patterns which are the reliance of the home dressmaker and often of the professional modiste as well. In deciding the line he would carry in the Williams Dry Goods Store, the proprietor sought one which would furnish models attractive but not extreme, suitable to the ages for which designed, reliable in sizes and estimates of material. He found all this in the Pictorial Review patterns which he recommends unqualifiedly, and of which he carries all sizes of everything put out except the unusual things seldom called for. 192t1

Quality Grocery
CORNER BRAND BLVD. AND WILSON AVE.
Much has been said, of late, about the different ways of conducting grocery stores.
During the war it was considered patriotic, in order to save man power, to visit the grocery store with a basket, carrying home the goods. Now we are confronted with the problem of finding employment for the returned soldiers.
Would it not be a patriotic thing, now, to patronize the firms who are giving employment to these men?
We are prepared to offer the best of delivery service. Orders received by 10 a. m. go on the forenoon delivery. Next delivery at 2 p. m.; last delivery for the day leaves the store between 4 and 5 o'clock.
Our telephone number is 59—use it. Get good service and good groceries at reasonable prices.

WORLD NEWS

ST. ANTHONY, Idaho, April 17.—The Idaho Industrial Training School here established a record for the rapid spread of influenza during the recent epidemic. Starting with one case, 120 persons in the institution were suffering with the disease within a week, this number being more than one-half of the total enrollment.

DAWSON, Alaska. — The Northwest Mounted Police recently raided several suspected gambling places here and rounded up many alleged gamblers. Jail sentences were meted out to all of those who were taken into custody except one man. He accepted the alternative punishment of heading down the Yukon River—in 50-degrees-below-zero weather.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—Preliminary to extending its participation in athletic activities with Western and Intermountain colleges and schools, the new athletic campus of the Latter Day Saints University is nearing completion. The field is being made to permit its use for ice-skating in the winter as well as for track, diamond and gridiron sports in the spring and fall.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Holy Week is being observed by San Franciscans with true Lenten spirit. The "Paris of America" has clothed itself in sackcloth and ashes and put Satan on ice. Theatres have been less attended this week than on previous weeks. No boxing bouts were scheduled at all in the bay district.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Mayor F. T. Woodman of Los Angeles went on trial before Superior Judge Frank R. Willis today on a charge of agreeing to accept a $25,000 bribe from two negro politicians. The charge was brought in a grand jury indictment returned a month ago as the first big sensation in an investigation of alleged municipal graft, started by District Attorney Thos. Lee Woolwine. George Brown and George Henderson, the two negro politicians, were indicted at the same time, accused of offering the bribes. The trial opening this morning promises to be a bitter and long fight. As chief of Woodman's counsel, Captain John D. Fredericks, once Republican candidate for Governor of California and a noted attorney, is appearing. District Attorney Woolwine, who succeeded Fredericks as public prosecutor, personally represents the state. Between Fredericks and Woolwine a bitter feud seems to have broken which, coupled with the vigorous charges of "pre-election frame-up" which Woodman's friends are making, is expected to be the groundwork of a stormy trial. In the indictment against Mayor Woodman the grand jury charges that George Brown and George Henderson, through Horace Karr, a newspaper political writer, promised to pay Mayor Woodman $25,000 in monthly payments of $2,500, in return for protection for vice interests. The appointment of Sergeant Wm. Hackett as head of the Police Purity Squad is said to have been involved. Mayor Woodman declares the charge is entirely a plot to ruin him politically. He now is in the thick of a campaign for re-election. Karr is expected to be a leading witness for the state. He is reported to have admitted receiving $1,000 to use influence to secure the appointment of Hackett as head of the Purity Squad.

VICTORY!

What is Victory worth? What would we have given this time last year to have been assured of victory? What pledge would we have not made? And now that our men have won will we hesitate to pay the bill? They paid, those boys of the Argonne, in blood and life. They will pay, many of them, through all their long lives in suffering and in weakness. Every soldier that we see is a challenge to our hearts and to our pockets. They will not be a reproof. Their eyes will never say that we are, what they never were, quitters. We too can carry on. Generous they were and generous we will be. Our pride we will prove by thanksgiving, not in words but in dollars loaned to Uncle Sam to pay for bringing the boys back, for the guns that were never used, for the ships that were not sunk, for the care of the men who did not die, for the rebuilding of the men who almost "went West."

All the wise men said it will be the fall of '19 before the Kaiser will be driven into his own country. Our money would have gone throughout the year to make that hope good. But the Hun was driven back. He lost heart and cried "Kamerad" a year before the promised time. And the Kaiser fled, a fugitive, from a beaten nation—and so short a time since he had been in partnership with "Gott!" How many Victory Bonds was it worth to hear that news? Victory is not ours until we have earned it, paid for it and got the receipt in the peace treaty, with a guarantee that we shall hold what we have won—the right to live in peace. Your Liberty Bond paid for the gun that drove him into exile. And your Victory Bond will make sure that he will not come back.

Secretary.

FOR VALOR

This boy, who stands so straight
While the general pins the medal on his coat,
May be thinking of a frame house
On Kelley avenue in South Bend,
Or of the misery of having everyone look at him
While the trumpets blare.
But if I should ask him if he remembered
Curtius of Rome,
Or Childe Roland,
Or the Stainless Knight,
He would shake his head awkwardly
And say,
"No, ma'am."

TUJUNGA

A meeting was held at Bolton Hall on Monday evening. The children furnished a part of the program. Two numbers of music, one of which was "The Wearing of the Green," a character song by Frances Day and Frances Cloud. Then followed a discussion on annexation, and the much-discussed water question. There was a full house, and it was voted to hold another meeting one month from Monday evening, May 20th.

Miss Amy Hodges of Los Angeles is spending her vacation in Tujunga, and enjoying it by attending to the trees and putting her place on Los Angeles street in order.

Hosea Lee left on Tuesday for a trip to Bishop and San Bernardino. His sister will make a visit in Los Angeles during his absence.

Mrs. Darlington has returned from a visit to Redlands. Her mother is still very ill without much chance for recovery, owing to her advanced age and heart condition.

Mr. Johnson was at San Gabriel on Tuesday to see the Mission Play.

Mrs. Wright, on Michigan Highway, while trying to hive a swarm of bees, was terribly stung by them, and obliged to call Dr. Peters for help. For some reason or another bees seem to be more virulent certain seasons than others, although they seldom manifest any anger at the swarming time. Mrs. Wright has handled them for two or three years without any trouble, but not this time.

Mrs. Nora Milspaugh is spending a few days in Tujunga, the guest of Miss Z. Gilbert.

Mrs. Grace Maxwell and friend were callers in Tujunga on Wednesday.

Geo. I. Maxwell has sold his bees and trees to Mr. Prescott of Alhambra. They were moved last week.

INDUCE HIM TO LEAVE

"Do you know, Hettie," said the father to the 18-year-old daughter, "that it was after 12 o'clock last night when that young man left here??"

"Oh, it couldn't have been, father."

"But it was. Now, don't let that happen again."

"But I couldn't tell him to leave. I did nothing but show him my scrap-book."

"Well, I'll bring home my account book this evening, with your millinery and dressmaker expenses. If he calls, show him that."—Ideas Magazine.

TO MAKE CITIES BETTER PLACES IN WHICH TO LIVE

Every town and city in the country is being encouraged to observe a clean-up and paint-up week this spring as part of the general reconstruction program. In the own-your-own-home campaign, which is being conducted by the United States Department of Labor, stress is laid on the importance of repairs as a factor in preserving property, and it is taken for granted that every possessor of a roof-tree naturally will be vigilant in keeping all the surrounding of his dwelling in the best condition.

The clean-up and paint-up campaign this year has a special significance, since it is a preparation for the right sort of welcome to the tens of thousands of brave young soldiers who are returning from service in Europe. To every one of these the United States has become sacred ground, since all have offered their lives for the protection of this country. They will behold their native places with a new vision, and it is imperative that for them there shall be presented clean streets, freshly painted houses, and well-kept lawns, which present the idea of national thrift and civic progress.

"Make your town a better place to live in" is the slogan sounded by the projectors of a movement that has already enlisted 7,000 communities. Each town elects the week in May most convenient for active work and thoroughly organizes for its campaign. It is pointed out that this year, of all years, is a time when thorough cleaning up is imperative. In the stressful period of the war neglect was widespread and in many cases unavoidable. Public buildings, as well as private dwellings, have been permitted to run down, while an unusual amount of rubbish has accumulated in alleys and vacant lots. This neglect has produced unsightly spots everywhere, but the fact that they spoil the beauty of a town or city is not the chief reason why there should be a removal of all waste material and a draining of all mud holes. Dirt and rubbish menace the health of communities and increase the danger of fires. In view of the return of our armies from abroad, every possible precaution should be taken to insure sanitary conditions. The United States Department of labor urges prompt action. Every man, woman and child in a community can aid in this clean-up and paint-up campaign, and there should be definite organization for the utmost achievement during the week of civic house cleaning. But it is not necessary to wait a day to begin individual effort. A start can be made now, and when work is once begun continued effort is obligatory. Clean-up and paint-up week should be merely the beginning of a year of "keep it up."—Department of Labor Bulletin.
